

This will further degrade American society, please do not allow the POSSIBILITY that children would learn new ugly words and actions from television. This would result in the degrading material being discussed at school with their peers and ultimately allow them to learn from it.